If you like Bomberman (AKA Dynablaster in europe), you'll love this! I am more of a MasterBlaster guy (from Amiga 500 era) but I still love this as a great party game. Developer seems to respond well on discussions, and there are hints that more content is under way. You'll need 3 friends, 4 controllers, and infinite amounts of time and snacks (and/or booze) with this game. Sure, computer players are there for the lonely gamers, but it ain't the same thing. I had great fun with my 6 and 13 year old sons, the controls are easy enough for the younger and gameplay is balanced enough for a variety of ages and skills. Impatience is your greatest enemy here, you'll end up blowing yourself up most of the time.. Played the demo a bunch with friends and can't wait to play when I have friends over again..
